CORAM ; V.G.PALSHIKAR &
MRS. RANJANA DESAI, JJ.

DATED; 12 AUGUST, 2004.

P.C.;

1. By this petition, the petitioner challenges the order of he Caste Scrutiny Committee invalidating the certificate of the petitioner. We have considered the order impugned in this petition. It is a well reasoned order in according with the legal norms and needs no interference. Petition is therefore liable to be rejected confirming the order of the Caste Scrutiny Committee.

2. However, the petitioner has secured admission to an educational institution/course on the basis of this certificate and he is pursuing the education. We see no reason why should be prevented from completing his education that he has commenced. It is obvious that he shall not use his caste certificate hearafter for any purpose. In this view of the matter, we direct that the petitioner’s admission shall not be disturbed only on the ground that the certificate is invalidated. With this observation, the petition is disposed of.

3. Parties to act on an authenticated copy fo this order.
